

St. Michael and All Angels' Church Cemetery

The church and cemetery are listed on the register of Canada's Historic Places. The cemetery at this site makes a valuable contribution to the history of Saanich by providing a tangible reminder, in the memorial inscriptions, of the pioneers who are buried there. The rural setting and landscaping are important as they provide an outdoor sanctuary for reflection and remembrance within the cemetery. (Source: Saanich Municipal Archives)

You can visit St. Stephen's Anglican Church website for more information at:
<http://www.historicplaces.ca/en/rep-reg/place-lieu.aspx?id=1839>